

ROSWELL DAILY RECORD.

VOLUME 8.

ROSWELL, NEW MEXICO, THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 26, 1910

NUMBER 71

LOCALS WIN TIGHT GAME

It was a corking good game yesterday, the opening of the three day series between Roswell and Clovis baseball teams at Amusement Park. A crowd of six hundred people was out, among them Governor Wm. J. Mills and his party, and saw the locals win from the visitors by the score of 3 to 2. It was a fast game, being played in an hour and thirty-three minutes, and was comparatively free from errors, the locals making three and the visitors two. The result was satisfactory to a majority of those present and the crowd went away happy.

The feature of the game was the pitching of both teams, for Roswell, and Crowell for Clovis. The locals are credited with five hits, and only one of them, that of McCaslin, over second base, was a clean one. Seven hits were charged against Weeks, but four of them should have been "outs," two of them being the worst kind of scratch hits close to home plate. The pitchers both made splendid records, as shown in the summary below.

The feature play of the game was the double of Weeks, McCaslin and Wright, in the sixth. One man was out. Freeman went down on a hit, Wallace bunted nicely, being put out at first. Freeman not only reached second but had no much time he tried to go to third. McCaslin shot the ball across to Wright at third, catching Freeman and completing the double.

The games today and tomorrow will no doubt draw big crowds as good games are expected.

DIPLOMAS TO SIXTEEN

The graduating exercises of the class of 1910 of the New Mexico Military Institute were held in the auditorium of the new Lea Hall at the institute last night, attended by a crowd that completely filled the large room, which was decorated for the occasion the same as on the morning of the baccalaureate address. On the stage were Governor Wm. J. Mills, who delivered the address of the evening, Chief Justice Wm. J. Pope, Attorney General Frank Clancy, Ex-governor M. A. Otero, E. A. Cahoon and W. M. Atkinson, the two latter of the board of regents; Col. J. W. Willson, the superintendent; Dr. W. C. Alexander, who delivered the invocation, and the members of the faculty.

The Institute band was seated in the hallway which flanks the auditorium, being at a large, open door near the stage, their position being exactly right to tune down the strength of the band music. The opening number of the program was a medley of American home songs, by the band and proved popular, the audience applauding at intervals when an exceptionally popular air was played. After the invocation by Dr. W. C. Alexander, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, came the announcement of academic distinctions, by Capt. Litcher M. Peble, a complete list of which appears elsewhere in this issue.

The valedictory address was then given by Cadet Miller Smith Clancy, having been selected by the class to perform this office. For the subject of his oration he took "Follow the Glean," showing that the divine spirit of man that elevates him above all living creatures is that spirit which leads him to strive for the things just out of reach, his desire ever exceeding his grasp; and he cleverly showed that without this spirit no person could be a success in life. His remarks to his class were touching and eloquent and caused a deep feeling to flow through the hearts and minds of classmates, cadets and friends as he told them and the school farewell.

A song, "If I had a Thousand Lives to Live," by the band, was an entertaining number, following which came the delivery of diplomas by Mr. Canham of the board of regents. They were presented in the order in which the graduates received the honors, as follows: Thomas A. Stanciliff, jr., Edwin P. Coleman, Stephen W. Hill, Paul R. Bird, Frederick Muller, jr., James E. Matchin, Harold E. Kilburn, Earl A. Duna, William G. Walz, jr., Millet Smith Clancy, Guy Mayes, John F. Rowley, jr., Gordon Fowler, Will F. Woodruff and Warren Allen.

Superintendent J. W. Willson made a few remarks following the delivery of the diplomas, giving a brief history of the recent term and stating that to Milton M. Pitt of Roswell, 4th class, goes the collegiate scholarship and to O. S. Parish, "B" class, goes the preparatory scholarship, each a mounting in monetary value to $100, for highest general average for the year. Cadet Coleman won the collegiate scholarship, but as he is a graduate, the prize went to Cadet Pitt, who was second.

Then came the address of Governor Mills, which appears in full on the second page of this issue, which stands for itself, a strong commentary on the worth of the Institute and an exponent of good advice to all the youth of the country.

Following an overture by the band, came the delivery of commissions, which was to have been made by Adjutant General A. S. Brookes, who is in the hospital. In his place Frank W. Clancy, Attorney General, made the delivery speech and presented the commissions as second lieutenant in the National Guard to Cadets Stanciliff and Hall. Cadet Coleman won one of the commissions, but was not eligible to the appointment being a non-resident of the territory, his home being in El Paso.

Lieut. Col. Barlow then read the results of the year in military tactics the honors being awarded as follows: Best drilled company, Company "C." Best drilled cadet, Mr. Lassator. De serving of special mention, Cadets Roberts, Wivi and Clonson in Company "A," Cadets Saunders, Creamer and Higgins, in Company "B," and Cadets G. Garrett, Hubbard and G. Coulson in Company "C." Best marksman, Cadet Baird, with 22 4-5 out of 25. Second best marksman, Cadet Turner, 22 1-2 out of 25.

Following another stirring number by the band, "taps" was sounded in clear, beautiful notes on the bugle and the graduation exercises were ended.

WAS FLYING AMERICAN FLAG

WHEN SEARCHED.

Washington, May 26.—The schooner Esfuerzo, which was searched by the Nicaraguan gunboat Venus, was flying the American flag at the time she was overhauled, according to official advisers received here.

The schooner is said to have a Nicaraguan register. She may be partly owned by Americans, but that in no sense entitles her to the protection of the United States as an American vessel.

Practice for New Fireman.

The fire department was called out last night to give practice to J. Starr and Kirby Lewis two new firemen who go on duty June 1, taking the place of Dee and Walter Goldsmith, who have resigned. Dee Goldsmith will move to California.

HE MAKES PURE SILVER

New York, May 26.—Furnes from an alchemist's furnace heated to a temperature of 4,000 degrees in the world old quest for the secret of turning base metals into gold and silver were brought pneumonia to C. C. Dickinson, a New York banker, according to a remarkable statement of Dr. F. W. Lang, a Scranton physician, in whose laboratory the accident occurred. Dr. Lang claims to have discovered the long sought process and says he had interested Mr. Dickinson in proposals for taking up the work on a large scale.

"My discovery is one that upsets all scientific theories," said Dr. Lang today. "I have discovered the means of increasing a ton of pure silver by adding base metals a hundred times its size and weight, the result still being pure silver of equal if not greater fineness."

"For four years I carried the secret. I did not dare believe it myself. For eight and a half years I demonstrated it over and over again in my laboratory. I have taken base metals of four different kinds and successfully transmuted them into silver of the utmost purity and the product has passed successfully the sharpest scrutiny of the best assayers and analysts in the country. I even sent specimens of the transmuted metals to the United States mint and the report came back that the substance was pure."

"My explanation of the process is the theory of evolution. I believe that evolution pertains to the inorganic as well as to the organic things of the earth."

Prof. Lang said that Mr. Dickinson while watching the successful experiment inhaled the fumes which developed pneumonia.

Miss Zella Temple returned last night from Santa Fe, where she has been at school the past winter. She was met here and accompanied to their home in Artesia by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Temple.

W. E. Thayer and two daughters, Misses Julia and Eva, who were here two days for the N. M. L. commencement, returned to their home at Carlsbad last night, accompanied by Ralph Thayer, a cadet at the Institute. Mr. Thayer is an old timer of thirty years' residence in Carlsbad.

Mrs. F. E. Bird left this morning for Denver, Colo., where she will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Josephine Remsen, who was here for a month's visit and left this morning.

BUILDING OF HOMES

Charlotte N. C., May 25.—Amazement no doubt, would be expressed by Sam Phillips, Jeremiah Horrocks and Dr. Henry Taylor, the three Englishmen who, upon adopting America as their future home, brought with them from England the idea of and started the first building and loan society in the United States in 1831. If they could have been present here today at the opening of the eighteenth annual convention of the United States League of Local Building and Loan Associations, Little did they think, perhaps, when they organized the first society in Frankford, now a part of Philadelphia, that the idea would grow into the popularity and power it now possesses.

At today's convention were delegates from all corners of the Union representing about 6,000 associations with a membership of nearly two millions and total assets of almost $800,000,000. The League will discuss at its sessions today, and those to be held tomorrow, matters for the protection and promotion of building association interests.

Governor W. W. Kitchin himself came to Charlotte to welcome the delegates to the state. Mayor T. W. Hawkins extended a welcome for the city and S. Wittkowsky, on behalf of the North Carolina Building and Loan Association, Jay W. Sutton, of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., president of the national organization responded to the address of the governor and First Vice President James M. Mackay to the other addresses.

Besides the addresses of welcome and the responses President Sutton made his annual address and the other officers submitted reports.

A number of addresses were delivered on subjects relating to the business of the members. W. M. Allen, of Fitchburg, Mass., spoke on "Auditing: Of what shall it consist?" Alexander Moore, of Port Huron, Mich., on "Status of Investors and Borrowers in Insolvent Building and Loan Associations"; ex-Governor Winfield T. Durbin, of Indiana, on "Corporate Surety Bonds, Preferable to Personal Surety Bonds"; Charles O'Connor, of New York City, on "Law Governing Withdrawals: What should it be?" and George F. Gilmore, of Omaha, Neb., on "Postal Savings Banks."

Four Things to Remember.

The good people of Roswell are asked to bear in mind four things about the meetings at the Baptist church:

1. Sunday is the last day of the meetings, and your last time to hear E. O. Sellers sing.
2. There will be no meeting Saturday night.
3. The mass meeting for men only at the Armory Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock will be a great meeting.
4. Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be a special afternoon meeting at the church for everybody. Welcome for all.

TO SEE NAVAL BATTLE

ON THE WABASH RIVER.

Terre Haute, Ind., May 25.—Three days of solid enjoyment will be provided for the old Hoosier veterans by the people of Terre Haute for the thirty-first annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. Department of Indiana. Commercial organizations, Sons of Veterans, Sons of the American Revolution and Spanish War Veterans participated in the welcome to the aged "boys in blue" today. The streets will provide free attractions for the veterans and there will be many other novel entertainments.

A unique feature of the encampment will be a naval battle upon the Wabash river. The event will occur at night and will be watched by the spectators under the glare of a powerful searchlight from the top of the magnificent Wabash bridge. During the course of the battle, fire will be opened on the boats from a fort that is being constructed. A company of infantry will be seen marching in a land attack on the fort.

Another event that is not associ-ed ordinarily with the state encampments will be the dedication of the beautiful monument recently completed by the people of Vigo county as a tribute to the memory of its soldiers and sailors. The visitors will also be taken on motor boats down the river to the site of old Fort Harrison. This will be interesting in that soldiers stationed there as a protection against the Indians, were, at different times, under the command of two men destined to become presidents of the United States, General William Henry Harrison and General Zach Taylor. Numerous camp fires will be held. Several distinguished visitors will be present.

JEWS ARE EVICTED

St. Petersburg Russia, May 26.—An exodus of Jewish families from Kiev has begun. The total departures from that city up to last night was three hundred, the proscribed families belonging exclusively to the poorer classes. The expulsion was attended by harrowing sights.

The exodus is compulsory and in fulfillment of an order of the Russian government. All the Jews who cannot establish legal claim to residence outside the pale are to return forthwith to the confines defined in their original papers.

The evicted ones were veritable paupers. Throughout the day a slaugslang train of wagons passed out of the city's gates, carrying their miserable household effects. Sobbing women were clinging to little ones and the sad faced men were alike escorted outside the town and told to return to the places of their birth.

Nose Broken by Windmill.

Robert Young received a broken nose at three o'clock yesterday afternoon when the wind started up unexpectedly a windmill, throwing a bar in such a manner as to strike the young man across the face.

C. V. Stewart and wife, of Wooten, Colo., arrived last night to make their home in Roswell. Mr. Stewart will go in business here. He is a cousin of R. A. Stewart, of the Roswell Drug Co.
